Jail Regulations

1. No prisoner will approach the door when open unless instructed to do so by a Detention Officer.
2. Pictures shall not be hung or attached to the walls or furnishings. Windows and vents and bunks shall remain clear of obstructions.
3. Inmates shall be fully clothed during the following: Feeding, passing of medications, and passing of commissary.
4. During the feeding process, only the inmate whose name is called aloud shall come forward to receive a tray. Inmates shall pick up their own tray. You cannot hoard or save any prepared food items for later consumption.
5. Inmates shall have their completed commissary slips ready for pick up, as directed by Detention Center staff, on a specified collection day. Commissary will be delivered to inmates once a week on a specified day.
6. Each inmate shall be allowed two (2) twenty (20) minute visits per week. The week begins on Tuesday and ends on Thursday. Only two (2) visitors 17 years of age or older may visit at the same time. All ages under 17 must be accompanied by an adult 21 years of age or older, who presents a valid id. The visitation schedule is as follows:

Tuesday, and Thursday

8:30 AM until 10:15 AM

2:00 PM until 3:45 PM

5:00 PM until 6:45 P.M.

7. During recreation periods you will only be allowed to take a cup and 2 library books. Once inside of the recreation area, you will not be allowed to change to the other recreation area.
8. Inmates shall be properly dressed while in the day room. Proper dress shall be defined as wearing jail issued pants and shirt. A tee shirt may be worn instead of a jail issued shirt. The day room shall be defined as any place in a cell or cell block other than the bunk area and the toilet.
9. Cell lights will be turned off and placed in night mode daily at 11:00 PM. At this time the day room shall be vacated. Lights will be turned on at 4:30 am.
10. Tobacco products, rolling papers, matches, or cigarette lighters are not allowed in the facility.
11. Contraband is any item not issued or purchased through the Ector County Detention Center commissary process. Contraband is not allowed in the facility and shall not be possessed by an inmate. This includes but is not limited to tobacco products, drugs, and/or weapons.
12. An inmate causing damage to jail property may have the actual costs incurred deducted, from his or her commissary account, following an institutional due process hearing establishing the inmate's liability.
13. Inmates are allowed to have no more than 3 pr of socks, 3 pr underwear, 3 T-shirts and 1 set of thermal underwear in their possession. (White in color)
14. All inmates shall have their hands behind their back when walking in any hallway of ECDC.
15. During headcounts, all inmates are required to line up against the wall, holding their spoon, cup and towel.
16. Prior to feeding and recreation times, all inmates shall line up against the wall fully dressed.
17. All inmates shall remove their mattress cover from their mattress before leaving cell for recreation.

Inmate Discipline

Disciplinary action shall be applied uniformly and impartially by the disciplinary officer to all inmates who violate minor and/or major jail rules and regulations. An inmate may waive his/her right to a disciplinary hearing provided proper notification is given prior to the signing of the waiver. The waiver shall include: the appropriate identification of charges; the allowable sanctions; and the sanctions offered by the waiver. A waiver shall not include the loss of good time or restitution for damage to jail property as a sanction.

Inmates involved in disciplinary action have the following rights:

- (a.) A 24 hour written notice prior to a disciplinary hearing of the claimed violation or charges.
- (b.) You will be informed of the evidence against you, although confidential informants may be protected.
- (c.) To appear in person and be heard.
- (d.) Call relevant witnesses in their behalf if not unduly hazardous to facility safety and correctional goals.
- (e.) Present pertinent documentary evidence in their defense.
- (f.) If needed provision made for you to receive assistance.

Following the Disciplinary Hearing the Board or officer will provide you with a written statement indicating the evidence relied upon and the reasons for the disciplinary action taken. A copy will be placed in your file. If the decision made by the Disciplinary Officer or the Discipline Board is disputed by the inmate, he or she may appeal to the Chief Deputy. The Chief Deputy's decision shall be final.

Inmate Grievances

You may file a grievance if your civil rights have been violated, if a criminal act has taken place against you, if you were unjustly denied or restricted from inmate privileges, or if a facility staff member performed a prohibited act.

If you wish to file a grievance, ask a Detention Officer for an Inmate Grievance form. In the grievance state the date, time, names of people involved and pertinent details of the incident, including names of witnesses. The grievance will be promptly and thoroughly investigated. If applicable, corrective action shall be taken. An interim written response shall be given to you within 15 days with a Maximum time limit not to exceed 30 days for resolving grievance.

If you file a false grievance disciplinary action can and will be taken against you.

If the decision made by the Grievance Board is disputed by the inmate, he or she may appeal to the Sheriff or his designee. The Sheriff or his designee's decision is final.
